

The USAID FEWS-NET

Haiti Weather Hazards Assessment

For

September 1 - 7, 2005

Seasonal rains may trigger localized flooding and landslides across Hispaniola during the period. These, at worst, will be isolated and the rains will be regionally beneficial to sorghum, second season beans and second season rice. The seasonal rains will also benefit pastures and boost water supplies.

