

The USAID FEWS-NET

Haiti Weather Hazards and Benefits Assessment

For
April 20 – 26, 2006

This past week dry conditions overspread most of the region with light rainfall amounts falling along the northern tier of Hispaniola. Expect spotty shower activity for the remainder of the week and into next week with the chance of any significant rainfall to be minimal.

