

The USAID FEWS-NET

Haiti Weather Hazards and Benefits Assessment

For

May 3 – May 9, 2007

Rainfall during this last period has been light and sporadic across the region. Soil conditions are worsening throughout specifically in the southwestern peninsula. However, this is not a major concern. The crops are still very young in Haiti and do not need much soil moisture at present. In the coming period we can hope for some improvement as rains make their way to the island.

