

The USAID FEWS-NET

Haiti Weather Hazards and Benefits Assessment

For

May 24 – May 30, 2007

During the last period rains tapered off across the island, remaining mostly in the north central region. Despite lower than normal rainfall totals for the month of March over the western extremities of Haiti, soil conditions and crops are faring well. Next week we can look forward to a return of seasonal rains across the entire island.

